Indecent Exposure

Ceres, California - On January 18, 2012, at approximately 3 PM, a 14 year old female student walking home on Fowler Road from Mae Hensley Junior High School was approached by a man in a newer model, dark blue or charcoal gray, four door vehicle.

The driver, described as a dark-skinned Hispanic or African American male his mid 30's, asked her for directions to Crows Landing Road. The 14 year old looked inside the car and saw the driver exposing himself. The 14 year old ran away to safety and the vehicle left.

Approximately 30 minutes later, a man driving a vehicle with a similar description approached a 35 year old female walking in the 2000 block of Evans Road in Ceres, a quarter mile away from an elementary school. This man pulled up next to her and asked for directions. The driver was exposing himself, which angered the female who scared the man away.

Ceres Police Detectives are asking anyone with any information on these incidents case to Detective Art Hively at (209) 538-5728 or
