Routine Probation Search Results in the Arrest of Jose Osegueda, III

Ceres, California - On March 12, 2012 at 07:08 PM, the Stanislaus County Probation Department conducted a routine home inspection at a residence located in the 1700 block of Darwin Avenue in Ceres. The residents allowed Probation Officers enter the home for the inspection, however, 18 year old Jose Osegueda, III (who is on probation for narcotics and gang indicia) was not home. During the home inspection, Probation Officers discovered a substance suspected to be a narcotic and gang paraphernalia, which violates the terms of his probation. Per their protocol, Stanislaus County Probation notified the Ceres Police Department of the probation violation.

Ceres Police Officers responded to the home, booked the substance into evidence, and a warrant was issued for Jose Osegueda for possession of narcotics and actively participating in a street gang. Jose Osegueda was arrested on the Ceres warrant on March 18, 2012 at 3:30 AM and booked into the Stanislaus County Jail without incident.
