Good Hearted Ceres Officer Pays For a Meal

Ceres, California - On June 15, 2012, at 02:00 PM, Ceres Police Officer Bryan Ferreira was sent to Denny's Restaurant located at 1507 Herndon Rd. for a report of a person not able to pay for his meal.

Officer Ferreira arrived and discovered Dwayne Reichert, 46 years out of Turlock, was transient and suffered from memory loss. Dwayne had ordered his meal and realized he did not have his wallet or any money. Officer Bryan Ferreira felt jail was not the solution since Dwayne was only hungry. Officer Ferreira and the Restaurant Manager felt Dwayne was genuine since he was apologetic and waited for the police. Officer Ferreira and the Restaurant Manager split the tab.

Dwayne was transported to a mission in Turlock by Officer Bryan Ferreira where Dwayne received shelter. Officer Ferreira is a three-time Chiefs Award recipient due to his acts of valor and humanitarian service to the Ceres Community.
